

Career Field Information

Category:

Communications

Unit:

267 Combat Communications Squadron

AFSC:

2E1X1

Job Title:

Satellite And Wideband Communications
Equipment Specialist

Equivalent Civilian Career:

Telecommunications Repair Technician

Job Description / Background:

Installs, maintains, modifies, and operates satellite and wideband communications systems. Included are troposphere scatter and line-of-sight radios, earth terminals, multiplex, and signaling and termination equipment. Configures earth terminal equipment. Establishes and maintains communications link with distant earth terminals. Operates earth terminal control console, and monitors system performance indicators. Implements operational directives. Manages wideband and earth terminal facilities or activities.

---

Technical Training and School Information

School Length:

27 Weeks

School Location:

Lackland AFB TX and Fort Gordon GA

---

Job Qualifications / Prerequisites

For entry into this specialty, completion of high school with courses in algebra, geometry, trigonometry, and physics is desirable. Must lift a minimum of 60 LBS.

The Massachusetts Air National Guard provides all training

For more information call 1-800-292-3184 or visit <http://www.maotis.ang.af.mil/join>